

SOCIETY

CONTINUED FROM PAGE FIVE.

Mertz, Miss Alta Heats, Mr. F. J. Harbergh, Mr. John P. Heap, Mrs. John P. Heap, Miss Lucinda Lawrence, Col. George A. Arms, Mr. and Mrs. Kenya, Dr. Carroll Francis, Dr. William T. Gill, Mrs. William T. Gill, Mr. Richard Gill, Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Rice, Miss Elizabeth Rice, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tucker, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas J. W. Brown, Dr. W. W. Alinger, Dr. C. L. Starkweather, Mrs. C. L. Starkweather, Mr. Willis E. Ruffner, Miss Margaret Beck, Paymaster and Mrs. Speel, Mr. and Mrs. W. Walton Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. George Topham, Miss Marlene Topham, Miss Mamey Topham, Mrs. Eugene Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Patton, Mr. E. A. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Dean, Miss Dorothy M. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Edson Phillips, Mr. F. C. Hall, Mr. W. T. Gill, Col. George Richards, Mr. R. T. Scott, Miss E. C. Smith, Mr. F. W. Moore, Miss R. Hildreth, Mr. George E. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Lufford, Mr. F. L. Tarbox, Miss Converse, Hon. C. N. McArthur, Mr. Edward D. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pitcher, Mr. Charles E. Taylor, Mrs. Redick, Mr. J. G. Pratt, Miss Mary Allen, Mrs. E. Du Bose, Mrs. Robert Williams, Miss Lena Williams, Mrs. George E. Hubbard, Mr. E. A. Brand, Mr. H. B. McCawley, Miss Helen Zeh, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Harned, Mr. J. N. Bourne, Miss Jessie Masters, Mr. J. D. Skinner, Miss Blanche Green, Mr. W. V. Cox, Mr. S. C. Loomis, Mrs. Loomis, Mr. W. G. Bulloch, Miss Isabel Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Barker, Mr. Philip Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Moses, Mr. and Mrs. Allen C. Clough, Mr. James E. Bagley, Mr. Joseph L. Keefe, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hottenstein, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Buck, Mrs. W. A. Kelsey, the Rev. James M. Nourse, Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Fralley, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bowen, the Rev. and Mrs. Ravanel, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Jeffries, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Curtis, Mr. Alfred B. Dent, Mr. E. H. Trus, Mr. Albert D. Spangler, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Emig, Miss Pauline Dawkins, Miss S. Lillian Becker, Mr. E. S. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Yeager, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hodd.

At Homes.

Mrs. John G. Capers will be at home Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. John Crayke Simpson will receive Tuesday, January 25, after 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Thomas B. Sweeney will be at home on the afternoon of January 23.

Mrs. Ira C. Copley and Mrs. James H. Mann will receive together at Mrs. Copley's residence, 2131 R street, Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Edward B. Clark, of the Hamilton, will be at home on the first and third Wednesdays in February.

Mrs. Ella Logan, 1253 Irving street, will be at home informally tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. There will be music.

Mrs. Aurelius Rives Shands will receive on Tuesday, from 4 to 6.

Miss Thomas and Miss Eppes are the guests of Mrs. Shands.

Mrs. Mahlon Alpheus Winter and Miss Winter will be at home informally Wednesday from 3 to 5, 1317 R street, and will have with them Mrs. A. H. Erck, of Empire, Canal Zone, and Mrs. Walter Baker Lipeyer, of Newport News, Va.

Mrs. Willoughby S. Chealey, assisted by her sister, Mrs. C. W. Hendley, of Baltimore, was at home informally yesterday and will receive next Saturday.

Miss Bryan and Miss Eleanor Bryan will be at home next Saturday.

Mrs. Arnold Werner-Spanhoof will be at home informally on February 12 and February 26.

Mrs. James E. Hurley will be at home informally Wednesday afternoon at her apartment in the Highlands.

The Social Calendar.

The Southern Society of Washington will hold its next meeting tomorrow evening at the New Willard at 8:15 o'clock. A program will be rendered by the Washington Readers' Club. Dr. J. Henning Nelms will make an opening statement. "The Littlest Girl," of Richard Harding Davis, will be read by Mr. J. B. Dent. Two scenes from "The School for Scandal" will be given by Mr. Edward C. Townsend as Sir Peter Teazle and Miss Lenore Marie DeGrange as Lady Teazle.

Miss Maud McLean Ferguson will recite "The Absent Guest," and the concluding number will be scenes of comedy and tragedy by Mrs. Maud Howell-Smith.

Following the meeting the members who desire to do so will participate in the regular supper dance in the ballroom, which will take the place of the society's informal dance.

The President and Mrs. Wilson will entertain at the second of the diplomatic dinners to be given at the White House this season on Tuesday evening.

The Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. McAdoo will entertain at a dinner in honor of the President and Mrs. Wilson on Friday evening.

Medical Director and Mrs. Francis S. Nash have issued invitations for a dinner on February 9 in honor of the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing.

MRS. NILS SAALY DAHL, formerly Miss Rena Catherine Mac Innes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mac Innes, whose marriage was a brilliant social event in New York last Wednesday.

ner on February 9 in honor of the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing.

The Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson will give a dance February 8 in compliment to their daughters, Miss Lucy Burleson and Miss Sidney Burleson.

Mrs. Rufus King, wife of Lieut. King, U. S. N., has been called to Norfolk by the sudden death of her father. She will remain there with her mother at 215 Beechwood place for about ten days.

The ladies of the Columbia Country Club will hold their semi-monthly card party at the clubhouse, Chevy Chase, Md., at 2 o'clock tomorrow.

Mrs. Daniels will give a tea dance on Saturday afternoon, January 23, from 4:30 to 7 o'clock, in compliment to her guests, Miss Daniels and Miss Jackson, and on February 10 Secretary and Mrs. Daniels will be hosts at a dinner in honor of the Vice President and Mrs. Marshall.

Mrs. William T. Davis will give a luncheon on the afternoon of January 23 in compliment to Mrs. William Bailey Lamar.

Mrs. William Wirt Dickson has returned to the New Willard and has as her guest, Miss Marian Maddox, of Montana. Mrs. Dickson will entertain at two receptions during the season, the dates of which have not yet been announced.

Robert E. Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, has issued invitations to a reception to meet the Confederate Veterans, Camp 11, at Confederate Memorial Home, 1222 Vermont avenue, Thursday evening, January 21, at 8 o'clock.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. Walter E. Hutton, president of the Robert E. Lee Chapter; Mrs. Franklin G. Odenheimer, president general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy; Mrs. Maud Howell-Smith, president of the District of Columbia Division, U. D. C.; Mrs. Nina Whitaker, Mrs. A. Eugene Barr, Mrs. Ashton Todd, Miss G. Blanche Sinclair, Mrs. E. H. Marshall, Mrs. Wallace Streeter, Mrs. F. W. Mahood.

Mrs. John Lyons and daughter Louise, of Baltimore, are spending some time in Washington as the guest of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitch Shepard will be hosts at a dinner on the evening of February 2 in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Ira Patchin.

Miss Helen Stewart will entertain at luncheon on January 25.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Joseph Straus will entertain about twenty-four young people at a dinner at the Army and Navy Club on the evening of February 3.

Mrs. Henning Jennings will give a luncheon on Thursday afternoon January 20.

Miss Cora Breslau, of Baltimore, spent some time in the city during the week visiting friends.

The patronesses for the first concert of the season by the Home Club Chorus, January 27 at Memorial Continental Hall under the direction of Otto Torrey Simon, are Miss Margaret Wilson, Mrs. Robert Lansing, Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo, Mrs. Franklin Lane and Mrs. David Franklin Houston.

Miss Bertha Messinger has returned to her home in New York after a short stay in the city as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bohrend.

Mrs. J. Michals, of New York, is the house guest of Mrs. J. King.

Mrs. S. Scheuer has returned to her home in New York after a short stay in town visiting relatives.

Mrs. R. Bonwitt and little daughter have returned to their home in New York, after some time spent in the city, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Behrend.

Mrs. George Gordon and Mrs. Edwin Moore will be hostesses at a bridge party at Congress Hall, February 14.

Mrs. Esra Koon has cards out for a luncheon on the afternoon of January 24.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Atkinson will be hosts at a reception on January 25.

The Misses Chase, daughters of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. George F. Chase, will entertain at bridge January 25.

Invitations are out for a reception and dance to be given in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Mr. Ralph Goldsmith will celebrate his twenty-first birthday anniversary on the same evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. King left the city last week, to spend some time in Atlantic City.

Mrs. Lester Waterman has returned to her home, in the city from a stay of some weeks in Wilmington, Delaware.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Albert Britten have sent out invitations for a dance Wednesday, February 16, at 9 o'clock at the Highlands.

The ladies of Congress Hall will entertain at a tea on February 3.

Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Henry G. Sharpe will entertain at dinner on February 1.

Miss Mildred Bacon will be hostess at a bridge party January 24.

Mrs. Charles Picard entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Club at her home in Irving street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Rich, and Miss Ernestine Rich have returned to their home in the city, after a ten-day stay in New York, as the guest of relatives.

Mrs. M. Marx has returned to the city, after some weeks spent in Atlantic City, Philadelphia, and New York.

The Congressional Club will give a bridge party on the evening of January 25.

Miss Mary Cleaves Daniels and Miss Evelyn Jackson, house guests of the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels, will be guests of honor at a dinner to be given by Senator and Mrs. Shields on February 16.

Mrs. Dean Caldwell has cards out for a bridge party January 27.

Mr. W. Lewis, of Philadelphia, spent some time in the city last week, with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kuhn returned this week to their home in Belmont street, after several weeks' visit to relatives in the South.

Miss Hannah Terzoh, of Baltimore, spent a short time in town last week, with friends.

Mrs. Jussereau and Mrs. Bakhmeteff head the list of those who have taken boxes for the concert for the benefit of the Flotilla Fund committee, at the National Theater Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Calve as the major attraction. The other box holders are Mrs. William Corcoran Eustis, Mrs. Louis Pennington, Miss Lee, Mrs. Courtland Hoppin, Mrs. Marshall Field, and Mrs. William Crosier.

Mrs. Frank Pleadwell will entertain at a tea for her guests, Mrs. M. M. Merding, of New York this afternoon, and February 2 Mrs. William Barrett Ridgely will give a dinner in her honor. Later Mrs. Ridgely will take her guests to Mrs. I. T. Mann's dance.

Novel Masquerade.

On Monday evening last Mrs. H. Elton Smith was given a novel birthday party in the form of a masquerade surprise by members of Rathbone Temple, No. 8, Pythian Sisters. Among those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Jarboe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. John Bertha Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Darlington, Mrs. O. Atherton, Mrs. Mary Mitchell, Mrs. Emma Motyka, Mrs. Florence David, Mrs. Edna Lawson, Mrs. Edna Cook, Mrs. Gertrude Powell, Mrs. Arthur Richards, Miss Mary Steiner, Miss Josephine Jacob, Miss Elizabeth Prescott, Miss Tillie Samuels, Miss Ruth Saur, Miss Freda Marks, the Rev. Patrick Murphy, Mr. R. J. Smith, Mr. Thomas Wood, Mr. Harry Anderson, Mr. Herbert Morris, Mr. Thomas Bole, Mr. Ray Watson, Mr. H. Elton Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Sommers, Mr. and Mrs. John Prescott, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marks, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wolfshelmer.

Mrs. Victor Kaufmann has cards out for a tea Wednesday afternoon, January 26.

Mr. Lester Eiseaman, formerly of Washington, is now in New York, where he will make his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Berliner have returned to town from Atlantic City, where they spent several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Fischer, of Lanier place, are spending some time in Atlantic City at the Royal Palace Hotel.

Mr. Milton Heyn left Washington during last week for Baltimore, where he will locate permanently.

Mrs. John Lyons and daughter Louise, of Baltimore, are spending some time in Washington as the guest of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitch Shepard will be hosts at a dinner on the evening of February 2 in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Ira Patchin.

Miss Helen Stewart will entertain at luncheon on January 25.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Joseph Straus will entertain about twenty-four young people at a dinner at the Army and Navy Club on the evening of February 3.

Mrs. Henning Jennings will give a luncheon on Thursday afternoon January 20.

Miss Cora Breslau, of Baltimore, spent some time in the city during the week visiting friends.

The patronesses for the first concert of the season by the Home Club Chorus, January 27 at Memorial Continental Hall under the direction of

A street railway in a hilly section of Rome wets its rails with rumpler water.

GEORGETOWN.

The Woman's Auxiliary, of St. John's Church, Georgetown, will be "at home" on Wednesday, January 26, from 4 to 6 o'clock at the home of Miss Looker, 1212 Thirtieth street.

Mrs. Hyde and Mrs. G. L. Nicolson will preside at the long table and Mrs. William Looker will serve tea. The officers of the auxiliary will be assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Sparling, Mrs. Whitehead, Miss Hoskinson, Miss Helen Williams, Miss Rosenbush, Miss Lea, Miss Stewart, and Miss Offutt. Mrs. Berrell, Mrs. William Bell, and Mrs. Hassan will have the cake table; Mrs. Talcott, Miss Darnelle, and Miss Marbury will have candy. Two hundred cards have been sent out.

Mrs. Williamson and Miss Williamson will be "at home" on Thursday.

Tomorrow night the second Georgetown assembly will take place.

Miss Alice Leitch and Miss Gertrude Thompson are spending the week-end at Annapolis.

Miss Alexander and Miss Beer were hostesses on Monday evening for their sewing club. Twelve guests were present. Mrs. J. E. Gadsby will be at home on Thursday, February 3, when she will have as house guests Col. and Mrs. F. E. Boothby of Portland, Me.

Mrs. William Radford Beale, of Virginia, is the guest of Mrs. Ballard Preston, 3020 Dent place.

Mrs. Preston was at home on Thursday when Mrs. Beale received with her.

The reception at the "Edes Home" on Tuesday was a most delightful affair. Mrs. William Dunlap, Mrs. Stewart, and Miss Emily Matthews served fruit punch. The woman's board was well represented as well as many of the board of directors.

LAUREL.

Miss Madge Sample entertained the Five Hundred Club yesterday afternoon at her home in Lafayette avenue. There was also a few guests outside the club.

Miss Annie Stanley is the guest of friends in Washington.

Mrs. L. A. Johnstone, of Washington, spent the week-end with friends here.

Misses Mary and Dede Eetop, of West River, were the guests of their cousin, Mrs. Franklin W. Taylor, at her home in Main street.

Miss Helen Cranall has returned from a visit to friends in Jessup, Md.

The Ladies' Aid of St. Philip's Church met Tuesday at the residence of Mrs. Nathan Thompson, in Washington avenue.

Mr. Frank Leeman, who has been spending some time in Laurel, left today for Wilmington, Del.

CHEVY CHASE.

Mrs. William L. Crounse has as her house guest Mrs. Jones, of New York, and entertained at auction on Tuesday in her honor.

Mrs. W. E. Richardson will entertain her bridge club on Tuesday, January 25.

Mrs. Walter Dunlap was hostess on Wednesday at bridge.

Mrs. Williamson is visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Mrs. E. N. Wright entertained at auction on Friday in compliment to Mrs. Jones, of New York.

Mrs. John L. Beattie was hostess on Wednesday afternoon for the Women's Club.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wilson entertained the Music Club on Monday. The composer for the evening was Schubert. Mr. Oliver Smith read a paper on the life of the composer. Miss Ma-loney, a guest of the club, gave two piano solos. Those of the club who contributed to the evening's pleasure were Prof. Joseph Casper, Dr. and Mrs. Swann, Miss Allen, Mr. Eugene McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Smith, Mrs. William Wallis and Mrs. Howard Combe.

Lieut. and Mrs. George T. Everett arrived yesterday, and are guests of Col. and Mrs. F. M. M. Beall. Lieut. Everett has been stationed in California, and is here under orders to the Maryland Agricultural College.

Rev. Father Thomas G. Smyth performed the marriage ceremony on Wednesday for Mr. William M. Noonan and Mrs. Jessie Fleming, at 5 o'clock in the Catholic Church. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Noonan left for their wedding trip.

The Embroidery Club of Anacostia was entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. Ernest L. White at her home in W street, with Mrs. Edmund Mallett in charge of the instruction. Luncheon was served. Those present were Mrs. William Scantlebury, Mrs. Edward F. Wood, Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, Mrs. Robert with the club. The new clubhouse is located on the Anacostia River adjacent to the Pennsylvania avenue bridge, on the new seawall line. In addition to several musical selections, which were contributed by members, an oyster supper was served. On Thursday evening the ladies held a dance at the clubhouse, and it has been decided that a similar affair will be held on each Thursday evening in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Johnston have gone to South Dakota, where they will make their future home.

Miss Blanche Mundell has returned home in Maple avenue after accompanying the State Department party on a tour of several Northern cities in connection with the Pan-American Congress.

The Washington Yacht Club formally opened its new quarters on Monday evening with a house-warming party and special in charge of the ladies connected with the club. The new clubhouse is located on the Anacostia River adjacent to the Pennsylvania avenue bridge, on the new seawall line. In addition to several musical selections, which were contributed by members, an oyster supper was served. On Thursday evening the ladies held a dance at the clubhouse, and it has been decided that a similar affair will be held on each Thursday evening in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Johnston have gone to South Dakota, where they will make their future home.

Miss Blanche Mundell has returned home in Maple avenue after accompanying the State Department party on a tour of several Northern cities in connection with the Pan-American Congress.

The Embroidery Club of Anacostia was entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. Ernest L. White at her home in W street, with Mrs. Edmund Mallett in charge of the instruction. Luncheon was served. Those present were Mrs. William Scantlebury, Mrs. Edward F. Wood, Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, Mrs. Robert with the club. The new clubhouse is located on the Anacostia River adjacent to the Pennsylvania avenue bridge, on the new seawall line. In addition to several musical selections, which were contributed by members, an oyster supper was served. On Thursday evening the ladies held a dance at the clubhouse, and it has been decided that a similar affair will be held on each Thursday evening in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Johnston have gone to South Dakota, where they will make their future home.

Miss Blanche Mundell has returned home in Maple avenue after accompanying the State Department party on a tour of several Northern cities in connection with the Pan-American Congress.

The Embroidery Club of Anacostia was entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. Ernest L. White at her home in W street, with Mrs. Edmund Mallett in charge of the instruction. Luncheon was served. Those present were Mrs. William Scantlebury, Mrs. Edward F. Wood, Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, Mrs. Robert with the club. The new clubhouse is located on the Anacostia River adjacent to the Pennsylvania avenue bridge, on the new seawall line. In addition to several musical selections, which were contributed by members, an oyster supper was served. On Thursday evening the ladies held a dance at the clubhouse, and it has been decided that a similar affair will be held on each Thursday evening in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Johnston have gone to South Dakota, where they will make their future home.

Miss Blanche Mundell has returned home in Maple avenue after accompanying the State Department party on a tour of several Northern cities in connection with the Pan-American Congress.

The Embroidery Club of Anacostia was entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. Ernest L. White at her home in W street, with Mrs. Edmund Mallett in charge of the instruction. Luncheon was served. Those present were Mrs. William Scantlebury, Mrs. Edward F. Wood, Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, Mrs. Robert with the club. The new clubhouse is located on the Anacostia River adjacent to the Pennsylvania avenue bridge, on the new seawall line. In addition to several musical selections, which were contributed by members, an oyster supper was served. On Thursday evening the ladies held a dance at the clubhouse, and it has been decided that a similar affair will be held on each Thursday evening in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Johnston have gone to South Dakota, where they will make their future home.

Miss Blanche Mundell has returned home in Maple avenue after accompanying the State Department party on a tour of several Northern cities in connection with the Pan-American Congress.

The Embroidery Club of Anacostia was entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. Ernest L. White at her home in W street, with Mrs. Edmund Mallett in charge of the instruction. Luncheon was served. Those present were Mrs. William Scantlebury, Mrs. Edward F. Wood, Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, Mrs. Robert with the club. The new clubhouse is located on the Anacostia River adjacent to the Pennsylvania avenue bridge, on the new seawall line. In addition to several musical selections, which were contributed by members, an oyster supper was served. On Thursday evening the ladies held a dance at the clubhouse, and it has been decided that a similar affair will be held on each Thursday evening in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Johnston have gone to South Dakota, where they will make their future home.

Miss Blanche Mundell has returned home in Maple avenue after accompanying the State Department party on a tour of several Northern cities in connection with the Pan-American Congress.

The Embroidery Club of Anacostia was entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. Ernest L. White at her home in W street, with Mrs. Edmund Mallett in charge of the instruction. Luncheon was served. Those present were Mrs. William Scantlebury, Mrs. Edward F. Wood, Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, Mrs. Robert with the club. The new clubhouse is located on the Anacostia River adjacent to the Pennsylvania avenue bridge, on the new seawall line. In addition to several musical selections, which were contributed by members, an oyster supper was served. On Thursday evening the ladies held a dance at the clubhouse, and it has been decided that a similar affair will be held on each Thursday evening in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Johnston have gone to South Dakota, where they will make their future home.

Miss Blanche Mundell has returned home in Maple avenue after accompanying the State Department party on a tour of several Northern cities in connection with the Pan-American Congress.

The Embroidery Club of Anacostia was entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. Ernest L. White at her home in W street, with Mrs. Edmund Mallett in charge of the instruction. Luncheon was served. Those present were Mrs. William Scantlebury, Mrs. Edward F. Wood, Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, Mrs. Robert with the club. The new clubhouse is located on the Anacostia River adjacent to the Pennsylvania avenue bridge, on the new seawall line. In addition to several musical selections, which were contributed by members, an oyster supper was served. On Thursday evening the ladies held a dance at the clubhouse, and it has been decided that a similar affair will be held on each Thursday evening in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Johnston have gone to South Dakota, where they will make their future home.

Miss Blanche Mundell has returned home in Maple avenue after accompanying the State Department party on a tour of several Northern cities in connection with the Pan-American Congress.

The Embroidery Club of Anacostia was entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. Ernest L. White at her home in W street, with Mrs. Edmund Mallett in charge of the instruction. Luncheon was served. Those present were Mrs. William Scantlebury, Mrs. Edward F. Wood, Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, Mrs. Robert with the club. The new clubhouse is located on the Anacostia River adjacent to the Pennsylvania avenue bridge, on the new seawall line. In addition to several musical selections, which were contributed by members, an oyster supper was served. On Thursday evening the ladies held a dance at the clubhouse, and it has been decided that a similar affair will be held on each Thursday evening in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Johnston have gone to South Dakota, where they will make their future home.

Miss Blanche Mundell has returned home in Maple avenue after accompanying the State Department party on a tour of several Northern cities in connection with the Pan-American Congress.

The Embroidery Club of Anacostia was entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. Ernest L. White at her home in W street, with Mrs. Edmund Mallett in charge of the instruction. Luncheon was served. Those present were Mrs. William Scantlebury, Mrs. Edward F. Wood, Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, Mrs. Robert with the club. The new clubhouse is located on the Anacostia River adjacent to the Pennsylvania avenue bridge, on the new seawall line. In addition to several musical selections, which were contributed by members, an oyster supper was served. On Thursday evening the ladies held a dance at the clubhouse, and it has been decided that a similar affair will be held on each Thursday evening in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Johnston have gone to South Dakota, where they will make their future home.

Miss Blanche Mundell has returned home in Maple avenue after accompanying the State Department party on a tour of several Northern cities in connection with the Pan-American Congress.

The Embroidery Club of Anacostia was entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. Ernest L. White at her home in W street, with Mrs. Edmund Mallett in charge of the instruction. Luncheon was served. Those present were Mrs. William Scantlebury, Mrs. Edward F. Wood, Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, Mrs. Robert with the club. The new clubhouse is located on the Anacostia River adjacent to the Pennsylvania avenue bridge, on the new seawall line. In addition to several musical selections, which were contributed by members, an oyster supper was served. On Thursday evening the ladies held a dance at the clubhouse, and it has been decided that a similar affair will be held on each Thursday evening in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Johnston have gone to South Dakota, where they will make their future home.

Miss Blanche Mundell has returned home in Maple avenue after accompanying the State Department party on a tour of several Northern cities in connection with the Pan-American Congress.

The Embroidery Club of Anacostia was entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. Ernest L. White at her home in W street, with Mrs. Edmund Mallett in charge of the instruction. Luncheon was served. Those present were Mrs. William Scantlebury, Mrs. Edward F. Wood, Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, Mrs. Robert with the club. The new clubhouse is located on the Anacostia River adjacent to the Pennsylvania avenue bridge, on the new seawall line. In addition to several musical selections, which were contributed by members, an oyster supper was served. On Thursday evening the ladies held a dance at the clubhouse, and it has been decided that a similar affair will be held on each Thursday evening in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Johnston have gone to South Dakota, where they will make their future home.

Miss Blanche Mundell has returned home in Maple avenue after accompanying the State Department party on a tour of several Northern cities in connection with the Pan-American Congress.

The Embroidery Club of Anacostia was entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. Ernest L. White at her home in W street, with Mrs. Edmund Mallett in charge of the instruction. Luncheon was served. Those present were Mrs. William Scantlebury, Mrs. Edward F. Wood, Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, Mrs. Robert